Swing Session Styles Invade Lecture Room

"Oh . . . you must be the little man who wasn't there!" Shades of Benny G. invaded Dr. Karl Hazeltine's Nature Study lecture Tuesday during roll call.

Dr. Hazeltine took the upbeat: "Young man, was that seat you're in taken last time?"

Young Man took a break at the chorus: " . . . uh . . . I don't think so . . . I was sitting here!"

The Prokofieff number has been dedicated to the composer of the concert, Mrs. Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge.

Counselor Choices Made In Near Future: Rhodes

Aspirants Invited To Leadership Meetings

People looking for summer counselor jobs should anticipate the probability that the selection of counselors will begin immediately, stated Dr. Robert Rhodes, adviser to the camp leadership group, yesterday.

"Forty members of the leadership group held counselor jobs last summer," Rhodes said, "and those interested in securing such jobs are invited to attend the camp group meetings or submit their qualifications."

"Members of the camp leadership organization are planning to attend the annual Pacific Coast Camping association meeting to be held at Asilomar, near Pacific Grove," Rhodes stated, "and at which time the discussion of camp counselors jobs is slated."

Dr. Rhodes will act as one of the leaders at a conference meeting devoted to counselor training, and will contribute to a meeting in which the role of college and university has in the training of counselors will be evaluated.

Dr. P. V. Peterson, head of the Science department, and Miss Barbara Ross of the Women's P. E. department will also participate in the Asilomar conference.

The Kaufman and Hart masterpiece in satirical dialogue and amusing situations will be presented to San Jose February 1, 2, and 3 in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Dorothy Leverenz, John Ravano, and James Kirtley are cast as the three broken-down vaudeville troupers whose Hollywood antics make the comedy.

SUCCESSFUL

Other students who were successful in the tryouts are as follows: Bill Moulden, Nina Wilder, Roberta Long, Lynn Hart, Lucille Gardner, Ed Soares, Lenyth Spenger, Azad Amerian, Barbara Bellah.

Thanks, City Council . . .

Appearing early this week in the Spartan Daily was an open letter to the San Jose City Council asking for the installation of pedestrian stop signs at the intersection of San Antonio and Fourth streets. By Tuesday morning we had word of the approval of our petition with the promise that the signs would be installed as soon as possible.

A vote of thanks should go to this city group for their fine cooperation in this matter. It has been difficult for students and townspeople alike to cross Fourth street inasmuch as some motorists have an idea that this Baysboro artery is in the same classification as a "racetrack".

With these new signs installed it's going to be a lot easier to get "on the other side", but at the same time those intending to cross should realize that a pedestrian lane is no place to loiter.

Thumbnail reviews of recently arrived books in the library meriting praise for their unusually interesting and instructive content.

While not exactly stimulants to greater study on the part of literary-minded Staters, many of the new works may be read in conjunction with some courses as valuable outside readings.

MARVELS OF INSECT LIFE, by Edward Step. A popular account of the structure and habit of insects, with 640 drawings and reproductions of photographs. A must-read for the nature student and a welcome relief from dry-as-dust books on the same subject.

SELLING FURS SUCCESSFULLY, by Max Bachrach, fur consultant; lecturer on "Furs and Fur Merchandising"; N.Y. University School of Retailing; author of "Fur". This informative, revealing book presents everything from the romance of furs to the types of women from a fur viewpoint. A handy, illustrated guide for the prospective fur seller.

EXPLORATIONS IN PERSONALITY, by the workers at the Harvard Psychological Clinic, under the direction of Henry A. Murray, M.D., Ph.D., Assistant Professor in Psychology. This interesting work is a dramatic revelation of the human mind, taken from a clinical and experimental study of fifty men of college age.

DANCE OF FIRE, by Lola Ridge. A book of exquisite poems, word-pictures of warmth and imagination. Definitely for all lovers of beauty.

The Lutheran club's January meeting will be held tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the Benthel Lutheran church. (Delmas near Park ave.) All members are requested to attend.

Freshmen Elect Officers At Meet Next Week

Freshman officers for the winter quarter will be elected at their next meeting, January 17, in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Ten o'clock is the time set for the dismissal of all classes for general assembly.

The freshman nominating committee has selected the following students to run for office, and class president, Bill Wells, suggests that the students acquaint themselves with them:

President—Ken Oliphant, Ronald Maas, Bayard Neilson, and Roy Diedrichson; vice president—Denny Morrissey, Bob Nerell, and Bob Danielson; and secretary-treasurer—Beverly Roberts, Happy Bailey, Glenna Frost, and Nina D'Anna.

Ballots will be passed out at the door on the day of the election.

* NOTICES *

Bomb-unists' Lowdown On War

(Ed. note: The following article was brought into the Spartan Daily office by a skulking individual wearing a long black coat and a dirty wide-brimmed hat pulled low over his eyes. Pointing ominously at a satchel in his hand, he demanded that we print this article. We looked at the bag. We print this article.)

IS THIS A WAR FOR FREEDOM? Can the anti-cominternists (Germany and Russia) fight for freedom when they rule 250 millions B.F. (Before Finland) with a dirty fist that would do credit to a Harlan County coal mine operator? Freedom is the right to self-determination with due regard to the rights for others. If Germany and Russia are such champions of freedom, why did they take part in the Spanish war, slaughter millions in Poland? Why is Russia openly aiding the Chinese and covertly working for a communistic regime as her reward? The anti-cominternists (Germany and Russia) are fighting against the nations which today have the greatest degree of freedom for their citizens.

WHAT ABOUT FINLAND? How much freedom is there in Finland? This government was established in 1918 by Mannerheim and 40,000 Germans who murdered 15,000 revolutionary Finns and thousands of Red Russians. Then the Germans sought to make a duchy out of Finland for the Vaterland. The Finns ran them out. Today Russia wants to make a soviet out of Finland and so far the Finns are driving them out. No country has sought to invade Russia since its government became well established. But today Russia is aiming at the Baltic and threatening the Balkans.

WHY ARE RUSSIA AND GERMANY NOW ALLIES? Heaven only knows. A few months ago communists in America boycotted German goods. Today they drink beer for chasers. A few months ago Germany sought to form an anti-comintern ring around Russia. Now either Germany is cominternistic or Russia anti-comintern. Take your pick. Germany sought the aid of Russia so that she might break up some of Great Britain's imperialism and regain some of her own. Now she begins to fear the Russian bear's voracity even more than England's status quo. Russia allied herself with Germany apparently to put up an invincible front that would scare all other nations. Now, not even Finland is scared.

WHY DO COMMUNISTS WANT US NOT TO AID THE ALLIES? Not even heaven knows. The communists have an idealistic theory of government which in practice depends upon wholesale slaughter and the suppression of minorities. Even their greatly-beloved Russia is not communistic but they figure that all aid they

Kerwin Pulls Sneak In Novice Tourney; Bolich Worries

The strategic move of teaching all his Novice boxing tournament entrants to box left-handed may result in Chuck Kerwin's Spartan Knight team winning the annual team championship on the evenings of January 16 and 17 when the matches are held in the Spartan gym.

SOUTHPAWS

As all the entrants are inexperienced, Kerwin believes that it is just as easy to teach them to box "southpaw" as it is to use the orthodox stance. Kerwin has been holding secret workouts in order to keep his strategy a secret until the last moment, but a hint of his plans leaked out through an unofficial source.

It was learned that two of the Spartan Knight entrants are natural "southpaws" and the other members of the team are responding satisfactorily to the new style. Eldon Becker at 120 pounds, and Bud Rideout are the two left-handers. Kerwin's other known entrants are Stan Murdock and Clarence Russo at 145 and 155 pounds respectively, and probably "Jus" Lundquist at heavyweight.

BOLICH WORRIES

Bill Bolich, who has managed the last two winning teams, was nonplussed at the new development, and is feverishly perfecting a defense against Kerwin's move. Bolich was not very optimistic over his prospects however, as he declared, "there is such a short time remaining before the tournament that I doubt if I can teach my 'green' boys any defense. It's hard enough for an experienced man to fight a southpaw."

Intramural Cage Tourney Underway

GRID MANAGERS RE-APPOINTED

Chauncey Benevento and Walt Mazzone were yesterday re-appointed senior football managers in view of their outstanding work accomplished during the season just closed.

The re-appointments, made at a meeting of the football team yesterday, come as a tribute to the "Screw Ball" twins for their efficiency in handling managerial duties, according to those close to the team.

Will all those on or connected with the Frosh dance committee meet in Room 13 today at 12:30.

Playing today in the Tuesday-Thursday league are Smoothies vs. Miracles on court one and Los Plojos facing the Poops on court two. Mohawks and Quad Rats draw byes.

Gridmen Receive TRAVEL JACKETS As 1939 Reward?

Thirty-five varsity gridiron performers, who were instrumental in the rise of San Jose's football power to national prominence, were sporting yellow and navy blue jackets today.

BOWL JACKETS

The jackets, which were originally slated to be worn to the Denver Bowl clash, were presented to the pigskin performers from the athletic fund.

Speculations as to whether this is the only reward to be given to the members of San Jose's greatest football squad in history were still prevalent on the campus today. The student council, which appropriates funds for special athletic awards, will hold its next meeting tonight.

INTEREST HIGH

Students close to the football situation will watch the council's actions with great interest.

HORSEHIDE SKED READY SOON

Although baseball season will not be actually underway until the weather clears, players, especially pitchers and catchers, will be getting their arms in shape by tossing the horsehide around in the Men's gym between basketball practices.

According to Coach Walt McPherson, the complete schedule will be ready for release within the next few days. Longest trip for the horsehiders will take them into southern California as far as San Diego where games are scheduled both with San Diego State college and the San Diego Marines. Contests are also listed against Santa Barbara State and Fresno State to round out the State College Conference.

According to McPherson, the schedule will call for one game each against Stanford and University of California. The season will open late next month against San Francisco State, here, and will continue to April, calling for approximately 25 games, McPherson said.

Casaba Contingent Faces Fresno State On Bulldog Court

Coach Bill Hubbard's varsity basketball contingent, who represent San Jose State college on the hardwood floor, open their bid for the California Collegiate Athletic Association title tomorrow night in the Fresno high school gymnasium against Fresno State college, who will be at full strength for the first time this season.

The Spartans will enter the game as favorites after splitting two games with College of Pacific. Fresno holds one win over Occidental, but has dropped close decisions to Santa Barbara and San Diego. Coach Hal Beatty will start a much stronger unit than that which saw the majority of action in the recent State college basketball "clinic" held at San Jose.

In uniform for the first time this year and ready for action will be Toby Lawless, forward, and Bob Peterson, guard, a veteran from last year, who have returned from playing football in the Hawaiian Islands. Roy Renfro, out of action all early season, will be in shape for the Spartan games.

Hubbard indicated yesterday that there would be no change in his starting lineup, but that he would stick with the same unit that has started most of the games this year. With Kotta and Carruth at forwards, Uhrhammer at center, and Allen and Maestri at guards, Hubbard will be favored to topple the "Raisin City" lads.

The Spartan team will not play on its own court until February 2. After the two Fresno games, the traveling Spartan caravan goes south for two games with the University of Nevada, and on January 30 meets the University of San Francisco in San Francisco.

Lettermen

There will be an important meeting of all varsity lettermen in Room 24 today at 12:30.

Reorganization matters will be discussed and Dud DeGroot will be on hand to help. It is imperative that all members be there.

Frosh Cagers Gun For Modesto Victory

With their sights set on the Modesto J.C. tilt Friday night, Coach Frank Carroll's freshmen cagers resumed intensive training last night following their second drubbing by Marin junior college.

SEEKS UNIT

Although the yearling's youthful mentor used the entire squad in the losing battle against the ball-hawking northerners, he is still in search of a suitable starting lineup.

Although there are several individual stars on the frosh roster, a smooth-working combination has yet to be discovered. In the Marin contest, Carroll ran up against the problem of sacrificing height necessary for rebound control when he entered his ball handling specialists.

SAME OFFENSE

The invading Modesto five employ the same offensive tactics as the Marin quintet used with such effectiveness against the local frosh. Teams which have stressed ball control this season have been the trouble-makers for the first-year casabamen and steps will be taken to smooth out this difficulty prior to the Modesto battle.

Pi Omega Pi will meet today at 7:30 p.m.; no meeting place announced.

WRESTLERS WEAK IN THREE CLASSES

(Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of articles highlighting the athletic future of San Jose State sports for 1940.)

By CONRAD LACY

Facing the 1940 season with the loss of three of last year's varsity men, Coach Gene Grattan's star-studded Pacific Coast Intercollegiate wrestling championship team will open the season with gaping weaknesses in several divisions.

WEAKENED

"Individually we possess some of the finest wrestlers on the coast," declared Grattan, "but lack of reserve strength and a well-balanced team will undoubtedly cause us to lose some of our dual meets."

Captain Mel Rush of last year's varsity, Freddie Albright, and Jack Fiebig are the three men lost, who will have to be replaced with inexperienced men. Vic Gorin, at 165 pounds, is the probable replacement for Rush who graduated in June. Gorin is "green", but if he lives up to his early season promise, will make an awfully tough man to handle.

ALBRIGHT OUT

The unexpected loss of Freddie Albright, who dropped out of school while still possessing two more years of varsity competition, will seriously weaken the team in the lower weights. Bob Norona, captain of last year's frosh team, is the only replacement available in this division at the present time.

The 135-pound class will also prove a weak spot if Jack Fiebig is held to be ineligible. The question of Fiebig's eligibility arose through the fact that he has competed on the varsity for three years, the limit allowed for varsity competition. However, during his first season on the varsity, he was still a freshman. The question is whether his first year is to be counted as varsity or freshman competition.

STEWART BACK

If Fiebig is lost, Gail Stewart is the most likely candidate to succeed him. Stewart competed on the freshman team two years ago, and dropped out of school last year. He has performed credibly against freshman competition, but whether he can hold his own in the tough varsity bracket is still a question.

The other five divisions will probably be capably handled by five juniors from last year's varsity, which bodes well for next year's team. However, there are virtually no experienced reserves in any of the weights, which will not seriously weaken the team unless someone gets injured.

RIDDLE VS. SMITH

The only division where there is much question as to who will be the varsity man is the light-heavyweight, where Charlie Smith is making a serious bid for the No. 1 position now held by Bob Riddle.

Heavyweight should prove an ex-

Inter-Society Council Sponsors Formal Saturday Night At California Golf, Country Club

Hal Moreno Orchestra Plays; Closed Affair

Four hundred couples will dance to the music of Hal Moreno and his orchestra Saturday night from 9:00 until 1:00 at the California Golf and Country Club when the Inter-society Council sponsors its formal dance, according to Margaret Hull, Inter-society president.

The Inter-society-Inter-Fraternity Council is made up of six sororities (about 240 women) and five fraternities (about 160 men). The purpose of the dance is to bring the sororities and fraternities closer together, it was announced.

With the affair to be a closed one, the 400 invitations were sent to members of the eleven organizations. Patrons and patronesses will be the advisers of the sororities and fraternities.

The picturesque setting of the country club alone will suffice as the decorations, announcements indicate.

SARTER ELECTED PRESIDENT OF FLYING CLUB

Leo Sarter was elected president of the State Flying club at a meeting yesterday, according to Doris Shields, secretary of the San Jose airport.

Clara Flocking was appointed secretary.

Harold Templin and George McKee were voted into the State Flying club, and Frank Wenner was added to the Twenty Flying club membership, Miss Shields said.

Rapid Growth Of Speech Clinic Forces Addition Of 8 Members To Teaching Staff: Dr. Letzter

Five Of Group Are Student Clinicians

"Efforts toward the correction of speech defects at San Jose State college have grown from the part time extra-curricula work of one man to a busy speech clinic requiring the full time duties of three trained individuals and five student clinicians," says Dr. Margaret Letzter.

The speech clinic under the direction of Dr. Letzter, who came to San Jose State three years ago from the Speech re-education department of Northwestern University, has grown from a small group of forty-eight students to the present number of one hundred and sixty-five enrolled for help in correcting speech defects.

COMMON DEFECTS

Common speech defects receiving attention in the clinic are varied voice problems, regional and foreign accents, lisping, stammering, general slovenly speech, and cluttered, rapid speech.

Many of the defects encountered in the clinic are due to physiological causes which have in turn developed psychological angles. In these cases the speech clinic receives the complete cooperation of both the health and hygiene and personnel departments of the school.

Working individually and in small groups, the clinic aids the students until their difficulties are eliminated or definite improvement is shown. The students who come to the clinic for help have been sent to the speech clearance committee from various sources: from exceptionally strong class, with Sam Della Maggiore, last year's second place National champion, returning Joe Rishwain, football quarterback, is also a possibility.

CHAMPS RETURN

Captain Fortune Masdeo and Mel Bruno, Sparta's two Far-Western champions, will be defending their positions as coast champions in the 145- and 155-pound classes respectively, while Con Lacy, as the only varsity candidate in the 121-pound class, stands a good chance of winning the Intercollegiate title.

the different speech classes, from the health and hygiene, physical education, home economics and personnel departments as well as others.

NUMBER INCREASING

"One of the most encouraging aspects of the speech clinic," said Dr. Letzter, "is the increasing number of students who are coming to the clinic of their own accord, realizing their need for help and anxious to do something about it."

The speech clinic, located in Rooms 63, 57, and 57A, is under the direction of Dr. Letzter, Miss Smith, and Miss Merritt. They are aided by student clinicians Dorothy Bakeman, Corinne Howe, Harold Smith, and Joy Arps.
